Dedication

*"Life is a story in volumes three,
The Past, the Present, and Yet-to-Be.
The first is finished and laid away.
The second we are reading day by day.
The third and last of the volumes three
Is locked from sight—God keeps the key."*

But because He lends this key to those who are wise enough to use it, because for them TODAY builds TOMORROW and the future is what they make it, and because that kind of TODAY is the theme of our pictured story,

Therefore our CARDINAL is dedicated to

YOU

who make TIME PRESENT architect of TIME FUTURE.

Our President

DR. CHARLES C. WARD

Each year it is my privilege to greet our students through this page in the CARDINAL. I wish it were possible to capture, even for a moment, the intangible essence of our college life which one who reads "between the lines" may find in this, our 1948 yearbook. In its memories of years that are past, in its hopes for an ever greater future for our college, there are mirrored the courage, the loyalty, the ever-gentle humor and the vision of young Americans who have dedicated themselves that this nation may become a better place for our people to live in and a blessing to all peoples everywhere.

Through the pictures and the text of our annual one will come to know Americans who, in spite of world fear and chaos, have faith great enough in their fellow men to believe that their country's destiny can win the gratitude of all mankind.

These Americans are teachers who believe this faith can become reality. These are some of the Americans to whom 140,000,000 of their fellow citizens will intrust their most cherished possession—the children of our nation.

In the lines and "between the lines" of our 1948 CARDINAL there is the evidence of what we are as a college and of what we hope to become.

It is with this thought that I express to the class of '49, to the editors and contributors, and to all of those who have helped in the preparation and publication of our yearbook, the appreciation of all of us for a task well done!

CHARLES C. WARD.

Our Adviser

MR. CHARLES T. SMITH

The junior class is proud to express its gratitude to Mr. Charles Smith, our faculty adviser. He has given willingly of his time, interest and advice, to help our class function and exist.

He has inspired and guided us—he has given us much success and happiness; for this, and for all the many ways in which he has made us aware of our responsibilities and abilities, we, of the junior class, would like to say “thanks.”

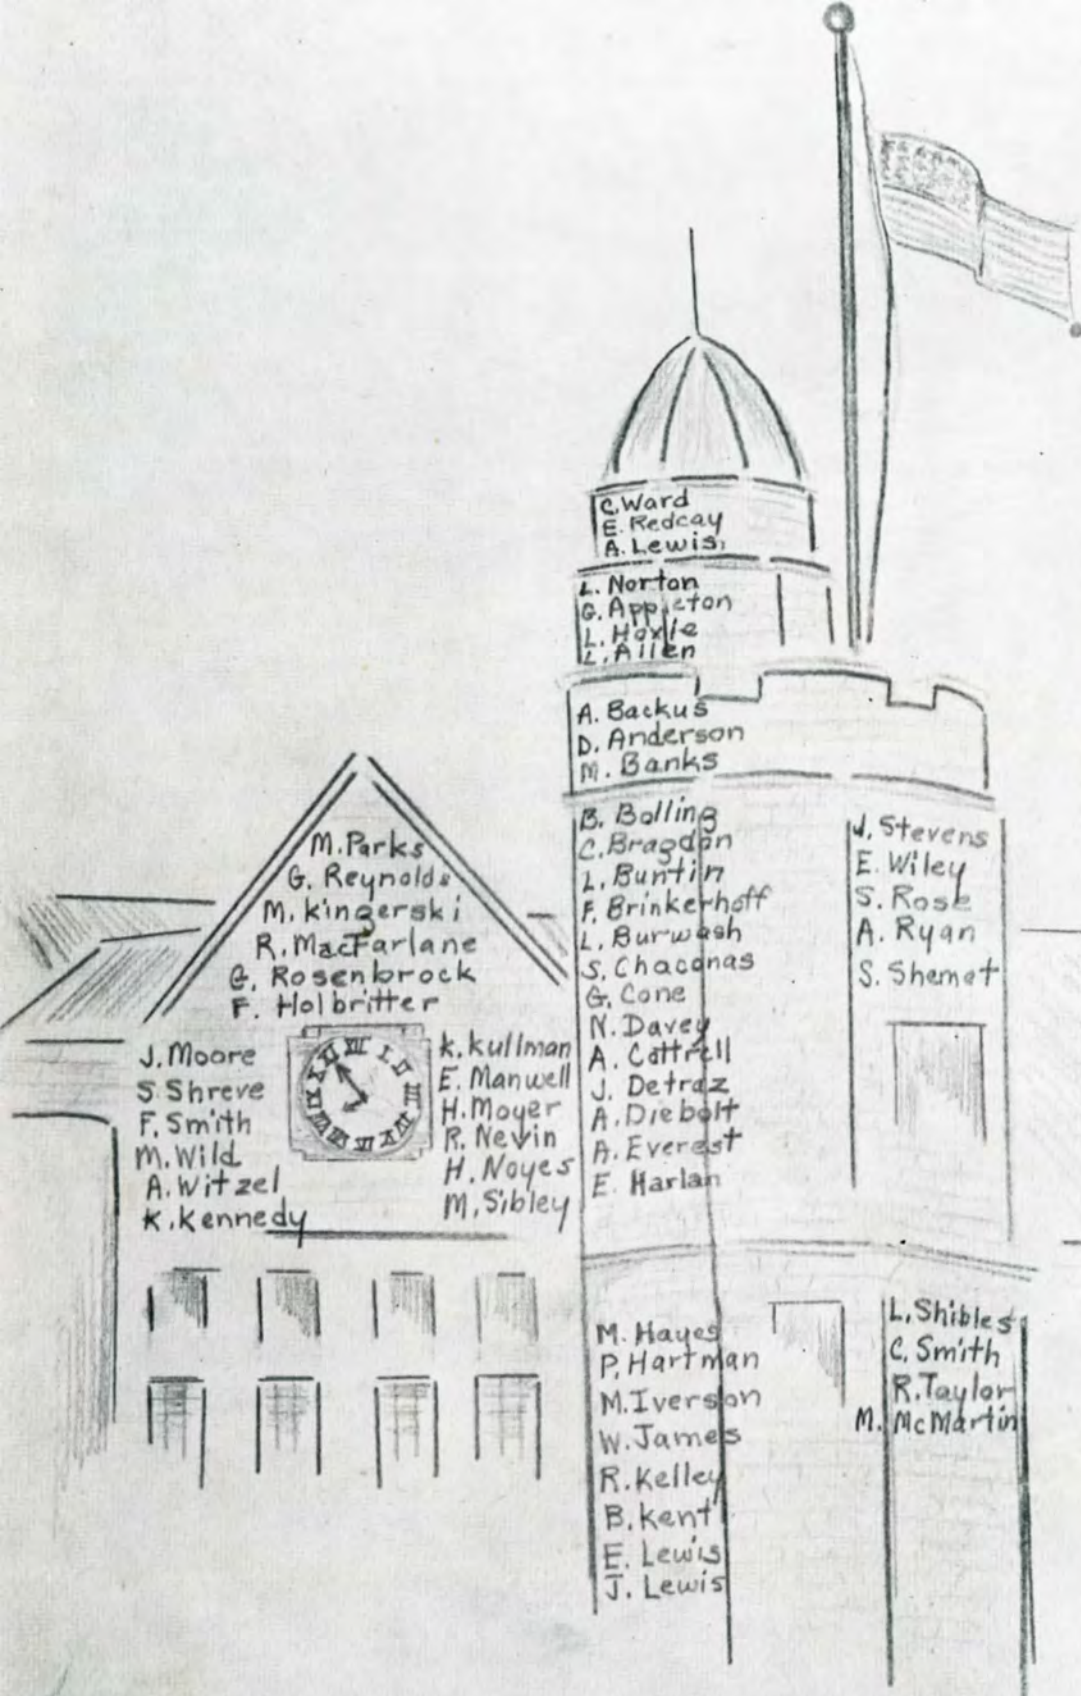

In Memoriam

BERNICE REISSMAN

Bernice Reissman was our classmate and companion, and she still is. The memory of enjoyed companionship, once fully possessed, cannot die. We remember her laughter and her likableness . . . we remember her in many different ways . . . but we do not know how to put the memory into words. Do we have to?

"We gathered here in '45" . . . and we'll always remember our All-College Party, better known as the Freshman Follies . . . the red and white frosh caps and keys and handbooks . . . the send-off beach picnic for our nurses leaving campus.

Our sophomore year . . . hazing the freshmen . . . the Sophomore Soiree with its STARDUST theme . . . joint freshman-sophomore picnic at Twin Valleys. Doris Benton as president carried us successfully through these two years.

Juniors now, and Doris still leading us, although Marie Versace was our able acting president during Doris' brief absence. This has been a busy year for us . . . Reunion Tea for our class of nurses . . . Junior Week with its traditional crowning of a Queen . . . and something new . . . a King . . . Prom . . . Banquet . . . Sneak Day.

Next . . . our senior year when we bid adieu to the College and set our course for the future.

JUNIOR CLASS SONG

We gathered here in '45
With purpose full in view
To do our best throughout the years
That were to follow through.
Our Alma Mater dear to us
Will always honored be
With White and Purple symbols true
Of our great loyalty.

Oh '49, we pledge to you
Our honor true, in all we do.
Oh '49, see how we shine
All through the years with you.

We promise we will always do
Where'er we chance to be
The things that we, as teachers should,
To hail P. S. T. C.
And, though we wander from her halls,
To places far and near,
We'll always treasure in our hearts
Her memory so dear.

Littlest and latest of P. S. T. C.'s young intellectuals, the class of '51 soon found it needed its intellect for more than it had counted on—fifteen Freshman Rules, for instance. Both sophomores and upperclassmen were only pretended toughies with hearts of gold . . . the frosh found that out at the All-College Picnic and the parties that came after.

They gave a party themselves. Kay Rudolf and Pat Rooney did archery on the sly in the large gym . . . let fly two arrows . . . missed bull's-eye . . . didn't miss Jack Sanborn and Marvin Stratton . . . the four class officers got their idea for the Valentine Dance.

Maybe the frosh will go on as they've begun . . . then they'll all graduate with honors . . . that's exactly what they're looking forward to.

An example of a well-organized student government . . . all student groups represented . . . this is the House of Delegates . . . clearing house for student problems . . . decisions reached by the House sent to Dr. Ward . . . become "the law" with his O.K. . . democratic government on a small scale today . . . on a large scale tomorrow.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Executive group of the House of Delegates . . . planning and steering committee . . . includes the officers of the House and one member from each of the standing committees . . . meet twice a month . . . preview problems before they are sent to the House for discussion.

WOMEN'S RESIDENCE BOARD

One o'clocks . . . house rules . . . housing conditions . . . the women of the Board give their brains to business like that. They're the house presidents . . . chosen by the girls in the various college residences. They chart out ground where minds can meet . . . theirs meet that of Dean Alice K. Lewis, their adviser. Together they catch today's problems as they arise . . . that tomorrow may have others.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

Assemblies are as much a part of college as . . . English, history, psychology . . . teas, dances . . . basketball games. The Assembly Committee . . . students chosen from the House, assisted by faculty . . . brings noted artists and speakers to the College . . . entertains, with the help of the Foods Class, speakers and students . . . plans the Student Concert Series. Carroll Glenn . . . Angna Enters . . . Louis Jones . . . Dorothy Crawford . . . we are still talking about . . . the Assembly Committee is planning for future concerts and assemblies.

These are the "idea" girls and boys . . . ever planning something new . . . doing the clever publicity . . . making social events successful . . . working with Dean Alice K. Lewis and the students that "help." Versatility . . . that's what they've got . . . also initiative . . . also cooperation. Many hours . . . that's what they spend . . . you get dances, parties, hay-rides . . . lots besides.

VOCAL ENSEMBLE

First row, left to right—R. A. Maurhoff, A. Torrance, G. LeDuc, N. Horton, A. O'Neill, J. Hess, M. MacLeod, V. Biehl, G. Boyer, J. Monroe.

The music season saw the return to P. S. T. C. of one of its former flourishing musical groups—Vocal Ensemble. The increase in the enrollment of men made possible the formation of a mixed chorus. The ensemble quickly took shape, showing versatility in the forms they presented. Dividing into from four to eight parts, they sang spirituals, sacred, popular and folk music, in both a cappella style and with instrumental accompaniment. The chorus presented programs at school assemblies, the nurses' graduation exercises, for civic organizations, and performed also at the Music Festival.

Advisers

Here are the men and women who make P. S. T. C's athletic tradition tick out intramural and intercollegiate sports distribute the funds set up the rules plan the program. They're a dynamic group meet monthly review the past and present outline the future.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Running true to predictions, the basketball squad came through with eleven wins against five losses. To its credit are two wins over Potsdam, otherwise undefeated. P. S. T. C. played admirable ball against competent squads from Massachusetts, Vermont, and Canada in addition to New York teams . . . truly a glorious contribution to our school's athletic tradition.

The jayvees contributed immeasurably to the team's record. Their successes are an indication of what we may look forward to next season.

Volleyball set the pace for a rapidly expanding intramural program—the two top teams engaged in a five-game play-off . . . the winners received suitable awards. In addition, an all-star team, selected from the competing squads, played several local out-fits . . . the results were satisfying.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Standing, left to right—F. Pavo, A. Light, F. Stokes, E. LaDuke, J. Bennett, Mr. Wiley.*

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL

*Seated, left to right—D. Olcott, R. Butler, P. Gordon, A. Light, M. McCurry, E. Valenze, R. Mischler,
A. South, J. Sanborn.
Standing, left to right—W. Davey, J. Douglas, J. Mahen, C. Watson, F. Stark, R. Lesperance, R. Baker, S. Linden, D. Kelley, W. Stratton, J. Junior.*

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

CARDINAL-WHITE TEAM

Standing, left to right—H. Sulette, K. Rivas, M. J. Dillon, K. Looby, V. MacPeck, M. Dimsey, D. White, C. Gould, N. Merrihex.

ARCHERY

The first of spring, and that's the signal. Miss Backus and her band of Robin Hoods . . . bows . . . quivers . . . targets . . . the enthusiasm of the tyros . . . the grace of the pros. Out of the past . . . memories of Doris Armbruster and Jane Paterson . . . champions of yesteryear . . . out of today . . . today was tomorrow when the CARDINAL copy came in . . . but certainly more enthusiasm as of old . . . more in the springs to come.

SOFTBALL

"Batter up . . . Strike one . . . Home run!!"

The shouts accompany the first chirping robin . . . birds and spring . . . spring and softball tournament. Choosing up . . . picking the captain . . . getting a catchy team name . . . taking positions . . . then hours of diligent fun . . . finally the GAME. Spectators cheering you on . . . maybe victory . . . maybe defeat . . . anyway something of today to keep for tomorrow's memory.

CHEERLEADERS

Seven little girls in red and white
Who lead the cheers for those who fight.
They've done a swell job with each new cheer;
We salute them all for a successful year.

TUMBLING

Athletes all, the tumbling team keeps in trim. Hand springs . . . somersaults . . . building pyramids . . . strenuous business . . . and only part of the story. Plenty of perfection . . . but plenty of practice first . . . hard work the keynote when the public performance is on tap . . . that's in Assembly . . . Dance Club sharing the double billing. Ten girls make up the team . . . June Hunt's the captain . . . each year an Achievement Letter goes to the star.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

Plenty of excitement in this interclass sport this year . . . Junior Purple on top at the climax . . . they won nine games. Senior Red took seven . . . nine are two better.

Honor teams polished off the season . . . Doris Brown's Reds beat Lorraine Latray's White team . . . but 39-35 . . . close and thrilling.

Lots of enthusiasm . . . lots of skill all the way . . . so much success.

TUMBLING

Art enthusiasts . . . take notice!! The annual art exhibit, sponsored by the Art Club, is the place for you. Skilled students make something out of almost nothing. They take leather, glass, wood, beads . . . make billfolds, etched tumblers, hand-painted trays, bead belts. The future product in mind, they work with the materials at hand.

The CARDINAL has given you a word and picture story of campus life at P. S. T. C. We think the future holds even greater promise.

This year has seen two of our "visions" become actualities—the new Home Management House—the opening of Conway Hall.

P. S. T. C. has three more "dreams" which are rapidly developing into realities. Blueprints are already drawn up for the new Home Economics building to be erected on the campus. Plans are in the making for the women's dormitory on the Conway property. And, of interest to P. S. T. C.'s sportsmen, Twin Valleys will soon have a ski lodge suitable for many activities.

The foundations of the Past—

The efforts of the Present—

The dreams of the Future—

These constitute our heritage.
